Halloween is sweet, spooky fun at the library this Oct.

Love to be scared? Or perhaps you gravitate toward the sweeter side of Halloween. No matter your preference, the Lawrenceburg Public Library District has some fun programs for you in October.

The biggest one is Halloween Sensation, which has increased from two to three hours to give everyone a chance to stop by. Free hot dogs, hayrides, candy, balloon animals, games and so much more! Fun for all ages.

Teens. If you are looking for something more spooky, register for Ghastly Plaster Casting to make your own Halloween decorations. Or get your photo taken with a ghost. What? Sign up for Spirit Photography to find out. Of course, start planning what to wear now for the Teen Cosplay Costume Contest.

Along with a take and make Rope Ghost craft at the Lawrenceburg Main Library, the mobile library has crafts for the younger kids from Coffee Filter Bats to Jack-O-Lantern Stress Balls.

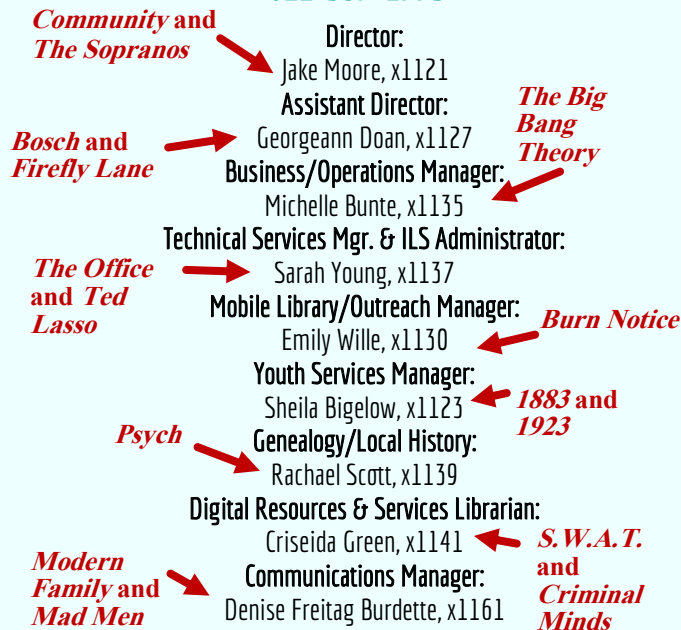

Adults looking for a big scare can enjoy a free dinner while watching the movie Smile. Or maybe you want to Visit the Beyond by participating in an interactive program that will take you into some real haunted spaces using a fun mix of history, photography, storytelling, and humor. Check out the programs on pages 5, 6 and 7 to find out more.

Reading for Adults

Dark Memory

By Christine Feehan

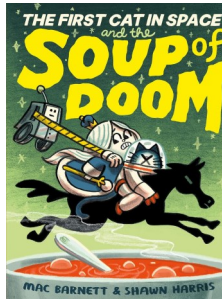

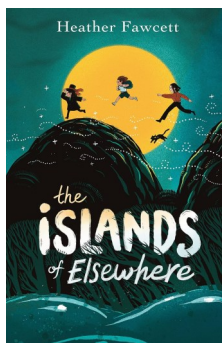

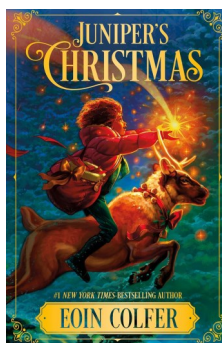

Safia Meziane has trained since birth to protect her tribe, the family she holds so dear. All along she told herself the legends she was raised with were simply that. But now, she must call upon all of her skills to fight what lies ahead. Evil has come to their small town on the coast of Algeria, evil that Safia can feel but cannot see.

She is terrified she will not be able to protect the ones she loves. As her family's "chosen one," she has always believed she would face this task alone- until her family reveals she has been promised to a warrior who will join her. An outsider, Petru Cioban, one of the oldest Carpathians in existence. He has spent all that time without the soothing presence of his life-mate. For two thousand years he has waited for this woman to be reborn.

The Deadlands: Trapped

By Skye Melki-Wegner

As bloody battle rages on between the two surviving dinosaur kingdoms, Eleri and his fellow outcasts, newly exiled from their herds, are searching for evidence to prove a mass conspiracy- a conniving cabal of carnivores have manipulated the herbivore kingdoms into war, so they can feast on the slain. But after their temporary home is discovered by a vengeful pack of raptors, the exiles must flee and soon find themselves trapped inside the Fire Peak: the volcanic heart of the dreaded Carrion Kingdom. Before they have a chance to escape, they discover a cavern of imprisoned herbivores, who are being picked apart - literally- one by one.
